Mighty Casey had struck out!

Beauty is the gift of God

The paths of glory lead but to the grave—

Neither a lender nor a borrower be —

It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done.

I never saw a purple cow—I never hope to see one!

All things come alike to all.

Oh wad some power the giftie gie

Let us now be up and doing!

In Memoriam

In memory of Arnold Maurice Packinius III, who died on October 15, 1945. Arnold would have graduated with this Senior Class of May, 1948.

"Gone from our midst, but still in our memories."

In hope that this annual will bring only the fondest of memories and that you will be proud of having attended Pleasant Grove High School, we, the staff, present this 1948 Bobcat to you.

The Staff

*We the Bobcat Dedicate
to Our Esteemed Superintendent*

Mr. Douglas

*Staff of 1948
This Annual
and Our Beloved Principal*

Mr. Duragan

To Pleasant Grove High School Students:

We are living in an atomic era. Never in the annals of history has there been a greater need for wise and competent thinkers. Naturally, if we are to make proper use of so great a power, it behooves all of us to become as well informed as possible.

We as a people, or as a nation, cannot afford to sacrifice principles merely to appease any other people or nations of people. On the other hand, we cannot afford to become antagonistic or obnoxious to satisfy any minority group.

The people that are best qualified to render any decision either by voice or by popular ballot are an educated, informed group. Since this is true, and if we are interested in keeping our great democracy intact, then we all should at least finish our high school work.

When, and if, through the guidance of THE GREAT TEACHER and through education, the people everywhere have come to some common agreement, certainly the power of the atom will be one of the greatest blessings ever to come to mankind. On the other hand, in the hands of an unchristian, uneducated people, it could render havoc untold.

The great problem is for the individual. When he is able to face and solve his problems, the nation will be able to do so well. Then, when our nations are capable of solving their problems, the world is safe for mankind in a democratic way of life.

Sincerely,

Dale Douglas

Superintendent

To The Senior Class of 1948:

After graduation -- then what? Going to college, getting a job, or making a home? It is certain that all of you will not be able to attend college. Not all of you can sit behind a desk. Some must work with their hands as well as their heads.

Your teachers have done their best to prepare and guide you for the future. Success or failure may be yours, and it is entirely up to you. Even though you have made your plans well, sometimes, unforeseen obstacles block your path, and as Burns has said, "Leave you nought but grief and pain for promised joy." I trust your training at home, church, and school has taught you to overcome defeat.

I sincerely hope your plans for the future will be successful and you will be able to rise above any obstacle that bars your path, but remember, you can succeed only through hard work and close adherence to our democratic principles.

SENIOR HISTORY

As bashful but determined little freshmen, we entered Pleasant Grove High in 1944 to begin the climb up the ladder of success. For our class officers, we elected Roy Montgomery-president; Bobby Byrd-vice president; and Christine Brown-secretary. Christine and Bobby were also our class favorites.

As sophomores, we were one step higher on our ladder. We elected L. H. Wheeler-president; Jack Hartley-vice president; and Christine Brown-secretary. Our favorites for that year were Shirley Rae Price and Lacy McLarry.

Then we were juniors, and on the third rung though some were finding it rather hard climbing. Wayne Bratcher was our class president with Jetta Harris as vice-president, and Betty McBride as secretary. Our favorites were Jetta Harris and Wayne Bratcher, while Clorine Middling and Dillard Martin were the most athletic.

That year we had the great honor of giving "Sound Your Horn" as the Junior Play, with Mrs. Glazener, director. The Junior-Senior banquet was given in the Melrose Hotel and all who attended enjoyed it.

Now in 1947, the top of the ladder has been reached, but for those who are going on to college, it is just a beginning. This year we elected Dan Sprinkle-president; Wayne Bratcher-vice president; Jane Daniels-secretary; and G. A. Glenn-treasurer. Like all other Senior classes, we have our favorites. They are: Jetta Harris and Dillard Martin, most athletic; Shirley Rae Price and Gene Lindsey, most popular; Betty McBride and Thomas Sims, best all-round; Coeta Redd and Paul Petersen, best senior personality; and Joyce White and Frank Horton, most likely to succeed.

But even though we are Seniors we occasionally quit dreaming of graduation and let our memories wander back when . . .

Harold Ashby was driving his open-air touring car; Betty Brey wasn't helping Mr. Dunagan; Aline Burroughs wasn't a colorful color guard; Gerald Benat wasn't aggravating the teachers; Mary Lou Brooks wasn't throwing her big toe out of joint; Wayne Bratcher's theme song was "I'll Walk Alone"; Bobby Byrd didn't have a well-known line; N. L. Baxley wasn't flirting with all the girls; Bennie Burden didn't have a knack for popping gum and driving all the teachers crazy; Jeannette Cross wasn't writing her will; Robert Carter wasn't driving his Plymouth; Barbara Christoph was waiting for the right boy to come along; Mary Jane Cannell wasn't known for her charming personality; Willard Cornell was shy and quiet; Jané Daniels wasn't playing the flute; Gloria DeLong wasn't merrily blowing bubbles; Billy Deggs didn't have a steady girlfriend; Robert Davis wasn't going steady; Pat Dean wasn't singing "I Want To Be Loved"; Kirk Drew wasn't planning on being in high school for five years; Shirley England didn't know one musical note from another; Jean Fowler was the talkative type; Betty Fuller wasn't talking about Rhome High; Roy Funderburk wasn't a P. G. lad; Hubert Gibson had nothing to say to any girl; <sup>Wallace</sup> Wallace Graves was calm and dignified; <sup>Charles</sup> Charles Gates wasn't known as 'little doc'; Christine Gunn wasn't a member of the 'Hag Mob'; Betty Gates had thoughts only for her lessons and basketball; G. A. Glenn wasn't a football hero; Jetta Harris wasn't athletically inclined; Danny Hoffman inclined; Frank Horton wasn't a vital peg in the football line; June Hoops wasn't thinking of taking life easy; Annie Headrick wasn't always studying shorthand; Ray Hale wasn't scaring the girls with toy spiders; Eugene Jones wasn't fondly called "Reverend"; Martha Jennings wasn't thinking about

Leslie; Oleta Johnson wasn't working for all the honors; Violet John didn't think the world was Dwan North; William Johnson wasn't known as "Humphrey"; Gene Lindsey wasn't the Charles Atlas of our class; Vernita Lipscomb wasn't one of our class's quietest girls; Roy Allen Montgomery carried a football instead of a bass drum; Alice McKissack wasn't doubling for Cass Daley; Datherine Morris wasn't full of laughs and the jokes that go with them; Dillard Martin was our freshman football hero; Dorothy Matthews wasn't known for good grades; Clorine Middling wasn't on the A-string in basketball; Betty McBride wanted to be a cheerleader but wasn't one; Alta Owens didn't have a friendly smile for everyone; Paul Petersen slowed down for curves (in a car); Shirley Price wasn't the annual editor; Allie Richards was timid and bashful; <sup>Coeta</sup> Coeta Redd wasn't always laughing at a joke; <sup>Dana</sup> Dana Sloan wasn't going steady with Lawrence; Dan Sprinkle wasn't our class president; Jerry Smith wasn't the shortest boy in the class; David Shipman was trying to beat his sister's grades; Zelmaree Smith wasn't one of the class's quietest girls; Thomas Sims wore a belt with his blue jeans; Evelyn Smith wasn't working on The Cats' Tale; James Stallings wasn't laughing at his own jokes; <sup>Joy</sup> Toy Sexton didn't know all the girls intimately; <sup>K</sup>atherine Terry wasn't making "history"; <sup>Ray</sup> Ray Trimble wasn't noted for his ability to act as if he were a werewolf; <sup>Eddie</sup> Eddie Wallace wasn't a bundle of muscle; Mary Lee Williams had pretty black curls; Joyce White wasn't known for her intellect; <sup>Juanita</sup> Juanita Wood's beauty came naturally; Rayburn Wright spoke English instead of Spanish; Martha Wall wrote large enough to see without a microscope; Johnnie Stinnet wasn't going around snapping everyone's picture; Talamidge McMinn was the first to turn his test paper in.

CLASS WILL OF 1948

Whereas, we of the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-eight, of the Pleasant Grove High School being of disorderly mind, unsound memory, and affected by such constant study and high grades do hereby make and declare this to be our last Will and Testament to our faculty and all the underclassmen, who have our deepest sympathy for their approaching years of struggle and hardships. As a last resort to rid ourselves of the below named virtues and vices, (mostly vices) we do hereby bequeath, and bestow them to the poor recipients.

First: We constitute and appoint (in fact command) Mr. Douglas to be executor of the will.

Secondly: We leave our books and all the test questions we can remember to the incoming class so that they too can be exempt.

Willard Cornell: "Why did you ask her for a date?"

Wallace Graves: "Because she's so different from all the other girls I know."

Willard: "How's that?"

Wallace: "She'll go with me."

Barber: "Paul, your hair needs cutting badly."

Paul Petersen: "No sir, it needs cutting goodly. You cut it badly last time."

Harold Ashby: "Every time I see you I think of Eugene Jones."

Charles Gates: "Why?"

Harold: "You both owe me five dollars."

Dan Sprinkle at the Senior party: "Due to the high cost of living there are no napkins on the table but from time to time a wooley dog will pass among you."

Mr. Thompson: "Joyce I'm ashamed of you. Do you know any more jokes like that?"

Joyce White: "Yes sir."

Mr. Thompson: "Well, stay after school then."

Miss Price wrote on the board: I don't have no fun at the seashore and asked G. A. Glenn, "How should I correct that?"

G. A.: "Get a boyfriend."

also Alice McKissack: "My father takes things apart to see why they don't go."

J. M. Ragsdale: "So what?"

Alice: "So you'd better go."

Father: "Where are you going Daughter?"

Juanita Wood: "Downstairs to get some ice water."

Father: "In your nightgown?"

Juanita: "No, in a pitcher."

Dillard Martin: "Who was Hamlet?"

Mrs. Linthicum: "Aren't you ashamed of your ignorance? Bring me the Bible and I'll show you."

Cop: "What's the idea of parking right in front of the fire house?"

Oleta Johnson: "Why, the sign said 'Fine for Parking!'"

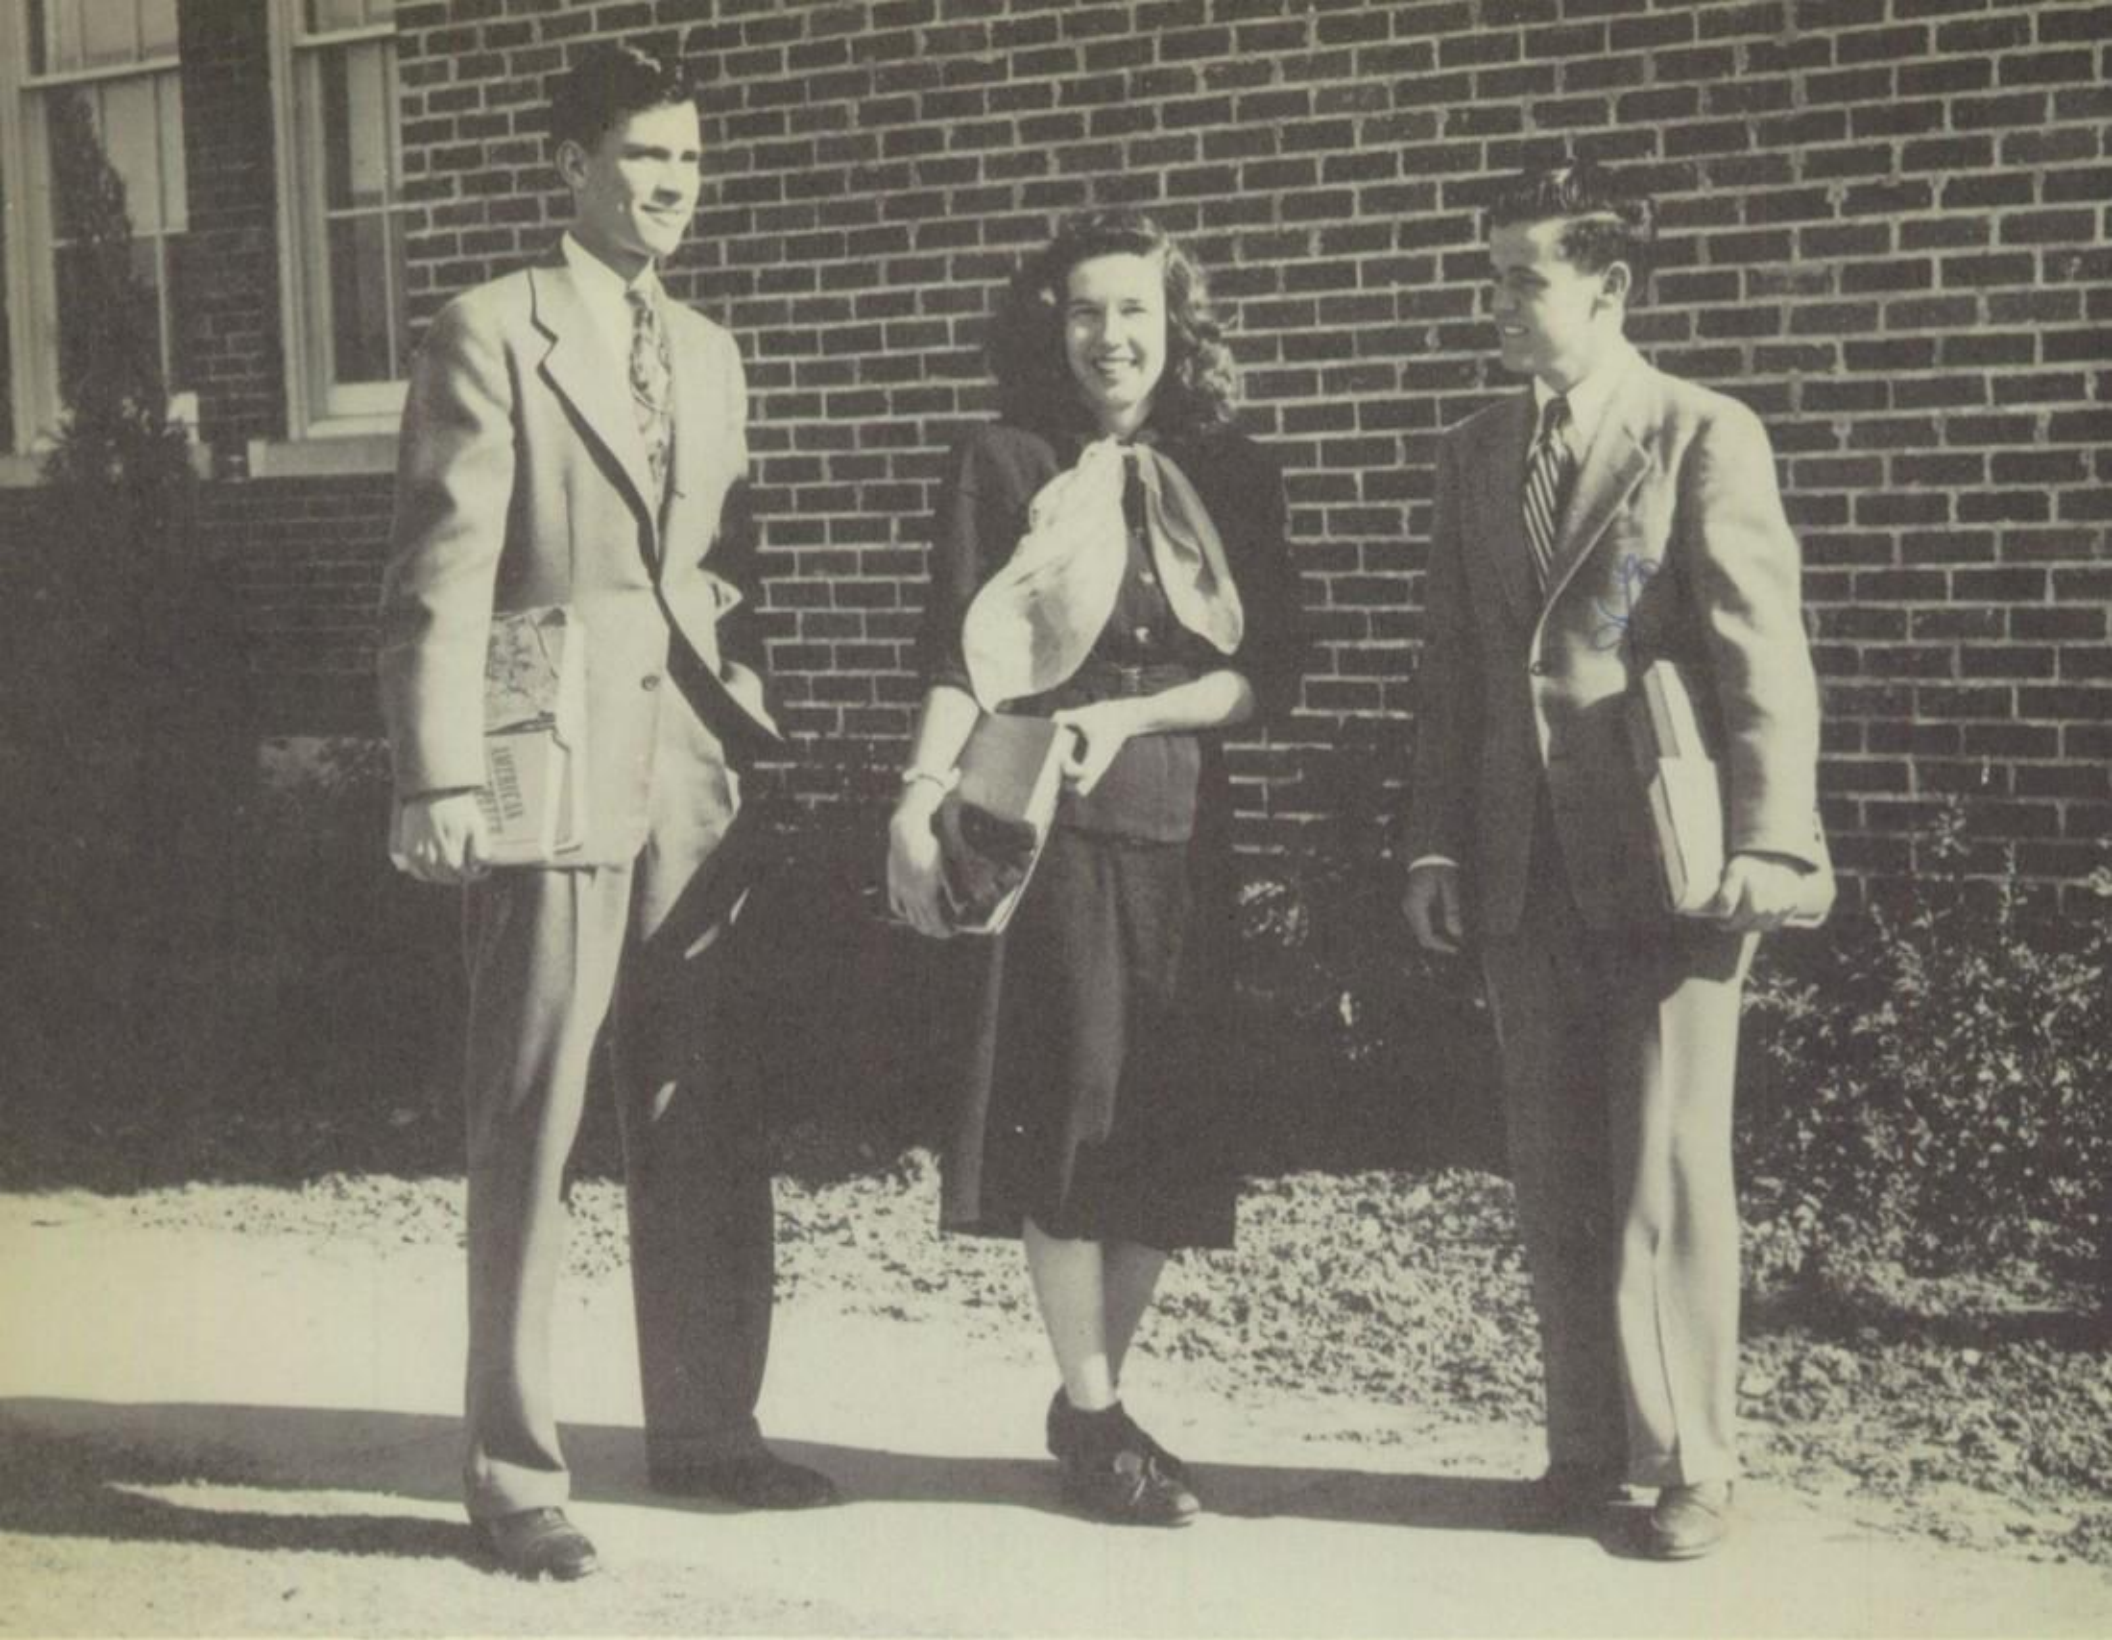

Mr. Mullens: "Ray, finish this statement, 'He who admits defeat when defeated is wise, but he who does so when not defeated is—.'"

Ray Ray Trimble: "Married."

I'd like to take this chance to pan

HUMOR

Shirley England: Mother, come out here and make little brother behave. He makes a face every time I hit him with this lead pipe.

Clorine Middling and Annie Laura Headrick were seated in Clorine's living room. The telephone rang and Clorine answered it. "Hello, Sure is," she said and hung up. This was repeated several times and finally Annie Laura asked who it was. "I don't know," answered Clorine. "Some guy keeps phoning and saying 'Long Distance from Washington' and I say 'Sure is.'"

The English 8 class was discussing fine physiques and Robert Carter remarked, "Boy, I'm muscle bound. The trouble is I just haven't got there yet."

Jack Hartley and Martha Jennings were eating supper at Martha's house and the telephone rang. Jack answered it and said, "Hello, how should I know?" then hung up. This happened four times and Martha looked up and asked what was the matter. Jack replied, "Some idiot must think this is the weather bureau. He keeps asking if the coast is clear."

It was the sixth period and the office had dispatched about eight announcements. As a girl walked in with another, Ray Hale exclaimed, "All boys with skirts on come to the office immediately."

James Stallings: Thursday night I went up to the stadium and cheered and hollered and had the best time—But I'm going to have more fun tonight—tonight they will be playing football.

Iune Hoops got up in assembly to recite some poetry (spelled P-O-U-L-T-R-Y and this is what she said: "A thousand years ago today a wilderness was here; A man with powder in his gun went forth to hunt a deer, But now the times have changed somewhat along a different plan. A deer with powder on her nose goes forth to to hunt a man.

Talmadge McMinn: "I want a job."

Employer: "We need a responsible man."

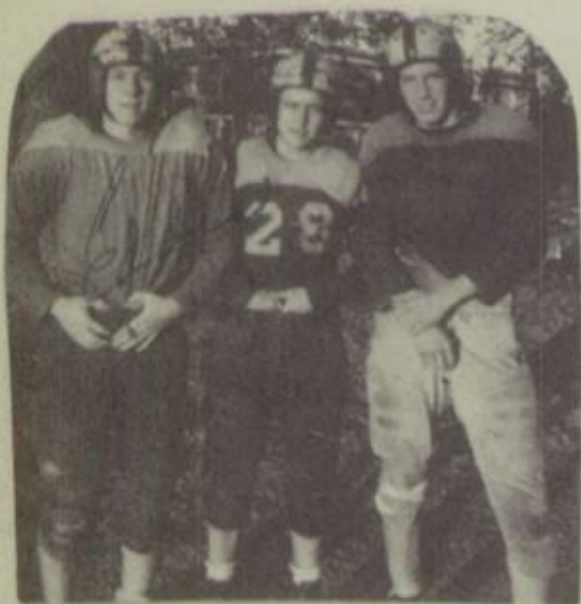

Talmadge: "That's me! Wherever I've worked, if anything goes wrong they told me I was responsible."

Gerald Benat: "I was running for a bus and just as I got there the driver slammed the door in my face—Boy, am I exhausted!"

Roy Funderberk: "You shouldn't be tired from a little thing like that."

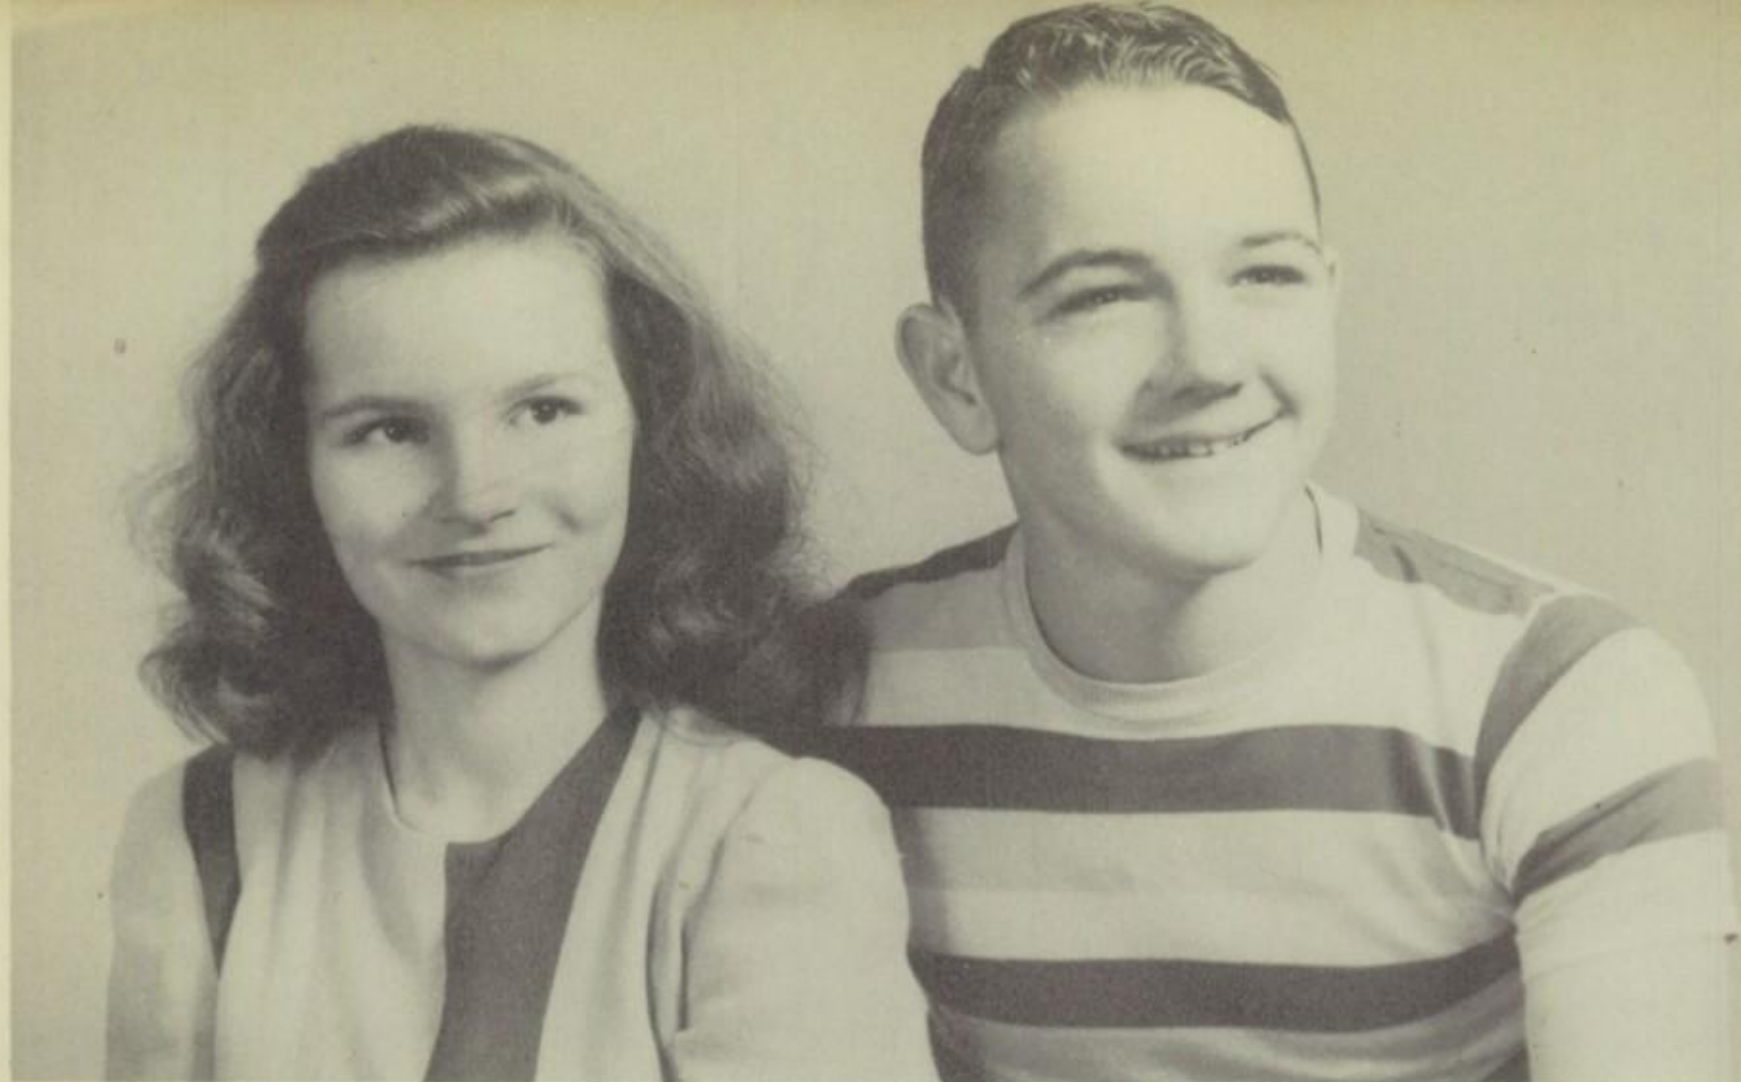

Gerald: "No? Did you ever try running six blocks with your nose caught in a bus door?"

JUNIOR TEAM

Under the direction of Coach Lane the "Kittens" grew from a group of inexperienced, but willing, boys into a smooth ball club. The boys were of the Freshman and Sophomore Classes, with a few players coming from Jr. High.

Most of the boys showed fine play during the season, and many expect to be sent up to the Senior team next year, where they will be the main stay for the Bobcats in a few years to come.

The Bobcat cagers finished the 1947-48 basketball season with the most impressive record ever made by a Pleasant Grove team.

Co-Champions with Garland High School in District 13A and winners of three invitational Tournaments, the Bobcats ran up a total of 984 points to 662 for their opponents.

Coach Troy Mullens developed four returning lettermen and a squad of un-experienced hopefuls into a smooth working ball club which only lost 4 out of 27 games during the entire season.

The 1948 track season began with six returning letterman and a large squad of boys hoping to fill positions vacant on the team.

The '48 squad is the strongest team that the Bobcats have put on the cinders in three years because of the two individual district winners and the winning mile relay team. G. A. Glenn, Frank Horton, Ray Trimble, and Kirk Drew composed the winning relay team. Eddie Wallace holds the district title in the 100 Yd. Dash while Ray Trimble holds the title in the 880 Yd. Dash.

Coach J. D. Lane's 1948 Baseball squad was the largest that has been turned out in the history of Pleasant Grove. The team was handicapped because of the loss of many key players of the '47 team and the ineligibility of some of the returning players.

Boys returning for the '48 squad are: Pitcher-Infielder Dan Kemp, Catcher-Infielder Roy Overturf, Firstbase Don Maxey, Secondbase Outfielders Wayne Bratcher and Jerry Langbein.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL

For several years, many of the faculty and student body have longed for a plan of student self-government at Pleasant Grove High. Finally, after months of careful planning, Mr. Dunagan and Mr. Douglas announced their immediate desires for such a plan. On the first week of February a temporary council composed of the officers of each class met under the sponsorship of Mr. Dunagan, high school principal. Dan Sprinkle, Senior Class president, acted as chairman.

Discussed at the first meeting were: the steps needed in forming a constitution for the council; the need for a program of community safety and school fire drills; and the possibility of visiting other student councils in Dallas. The latter plan materialized with a much enjoyed visit to a Highland Park Student Council meeting.

The newly organized Student Council of Pleasant Grove High is not only an indication of the healthy growth of our once small school, but also the promise of a bigger and better school in the future.

The Press Club for 1947-48 consisted of the 23 members of the Journalism Class and was sponsored by Dan Thompson Journalism instructor. Officers of the Press Club included Willard Cornell as president; Joyce White as vice president; and June Hoops as secretary-treasurer.

The outstanding accomplishments of the club included the changing of the school paper's traditional name from "The Leaflet" to "The Cat's Tale", and the change from a mimeographed paper to a standard printed paper. The Press Club published 18 bi-weekly issues during the 1947-48 school year.

Art Editor

We wish to congratulate the staff of the 1948 Bobcat for their splendid work. We only hope that next year's Yearbook will be true to the example they have given us.

We also wish to introduce three very important members of next year's staff: Dorothy Bridges-Assistant Editor, Robert DeLong-Assistant Business Manager, and Betty Hale-Art Editor. We think these three are very capable young people and gladly welcome them to our staff.

And now, until next year at this same time, we are respectfully yours:

Joe Hill
Bus. Mgr.

There's still lots of room in the air. There is always a place for the skilled pilot. And the place to become a skilled pilot is at the famous Gulf Aeronautics Flying School located at Marshall's Field on Buckner Boulevard.

Planes used by students at Gulf are recognized as America's safest and most practical for flight training. Multi-engined planes are used for advanced training.

Speaking of veterans - flight training is available at Gulf under the G. I. Bill. Veterans take advantage of this great opportunity.

THERE IS NO FINER FLYING SCHOOL . . . .

NO FINER INSTRUCTORS THAN YOU'LL FIND AT GULF AERONAUTICS. IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE.
